Paper is still a threat

‘Old-fashioned’ identity theft is still just as dangerous. Over half of all ID Theft originates non-digitally.

Minimize risk from physical documents:

- Register for USPS Informed Delivery.
- Invest in a shredder.
- Reduce credit offers with: optoutprescreen.com
- Go Paperless.
- Clean out wallet/purse.

What's already out there?

';--have i been pwned?
Check if your email or phone is in a data breach

@gmail.com pwned?

Haveibeenpwned.com

Check your email address and phone number for leaked information online.

The internet slang term "pwned" is used both online and offline as a gloating expression of dominance, control, or victory.

LinkedIn: In May 2016, LinkedIn had 164 million email addresses and passwords exposed. Originally hacked in 2012, the data remained out of sight until being offered for sale on a dark market site 4 years later. The passwords in the breach were stored as SHA1 hashes without salt, the vast majority of which were quickly cracked in the days following the release of the data.

Smartphone Savvy – Protecting your Device

“Right now, your smartphone is likely filled with apps that are collecting details about you, including your age, gender, political leanings, GPS data or browsing habits.”

- Washington Post, July 2021

Pay close attention to apps that

- Access Camera
- Track Location
- Record Audio
- Read Call Logs
- Read Text Messages

Wi-Fi Risks

Using Wi-Fi can be risky, especially in public settings.

Connect and browse safely:

- At Home:
 - Always password-protect your network
 - Keep router and security software up to date
- In Public:
 - Consider a VPN
 - Look for sites marked HTTPS
 - Avoid making financial transactions

Know Protection Strategies: Monitor Defend

Social Media

Active social media users are 30% more likely to be affected by identity fraud; Snapchat, Facebook and Instagram users are at a 46% higher risk.

Keep an eye on:

- Volunteering Sensitive Information
- Privacy Settings
- Tagging Precise Locations
- Knowing Your Network
- Password Strength
- Failed Log-in Attempts

Romance Scams

Con artists are present on most dating and social media sites. They look to quickly progress through Three C's: Connect, Convince, Cash In

- Go slowly and ask lots of questions.
- Verify photos using Google Reverse Image Search
- Never provide pictures, details or statements that can be used for extortion.
- Set up a video chat to verify their identity

If it sounds too good to be true....

Imposter Fraud

A criminal poses as a representative of a trusted institution or government agency in order to steal money or personal information.

Responsible for 995,789 reports and close to $2.4 billion in losses—nearly doubling the roughly $1.2 billion in 2020.

- Be skeptical of proactive phone contact
- Don't trust caller ID – it can be spoofed
- Go slowly and ask lots of questions

Peer-to-Peer Payments

Apple Pay, Cash App, Venmo, Zelle are great for moving money – but also pose a risk?

- Make sure you know the recipient
- Keep all transactions private
- Secure your account with a strong password and MFA
- Remember to sign out or close the app
- Always password-protect your smartphone

Credit Cards

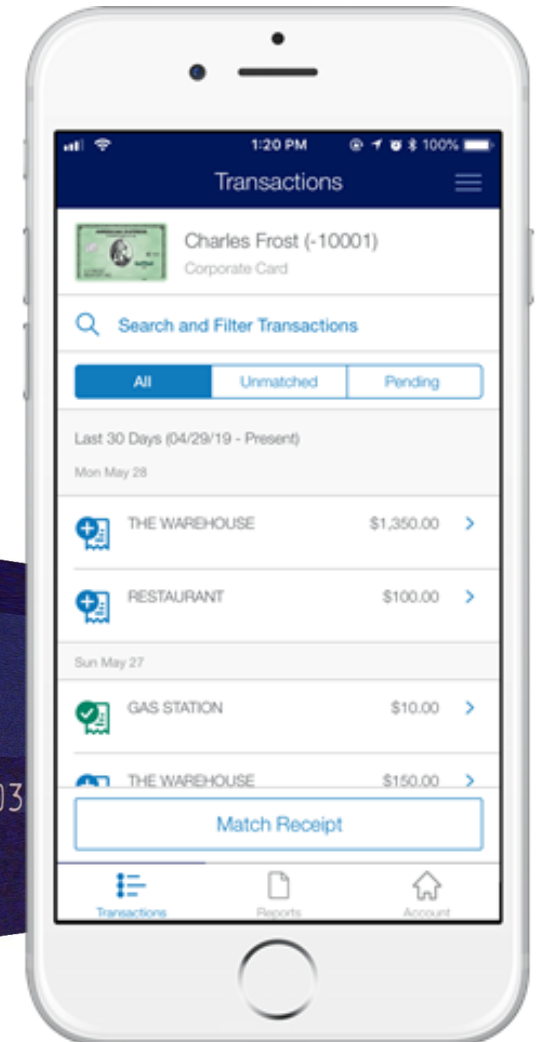

Credit Card fraud has been on the decline thanks to EMV-chips. Still, be cautious when handing over your card!

Credit Card Tips:

1. Designate one card for online/risky purchases
2. Explore Virtual Account Numbers
3. Watch for skimmers
4. Use the app

Card Smartphone Apps Can:

- ✓ View transactions in real time
- ✓ Lock/pause/freeze your card
- ✓ Set custom alerts

Credit Reports

Reviewing your credit reports can help spot identity theft.

Suspicious activity or accounts you don't recognize can be signs of identity theft. Review your credit reports to catch problems early.

Annual CreditReport.com

The only source for your free credit reports. Authorized by Federal law.

SCORE can be checked as often as you want for free.
REPORT can be pulled for free once per year, per bureau.

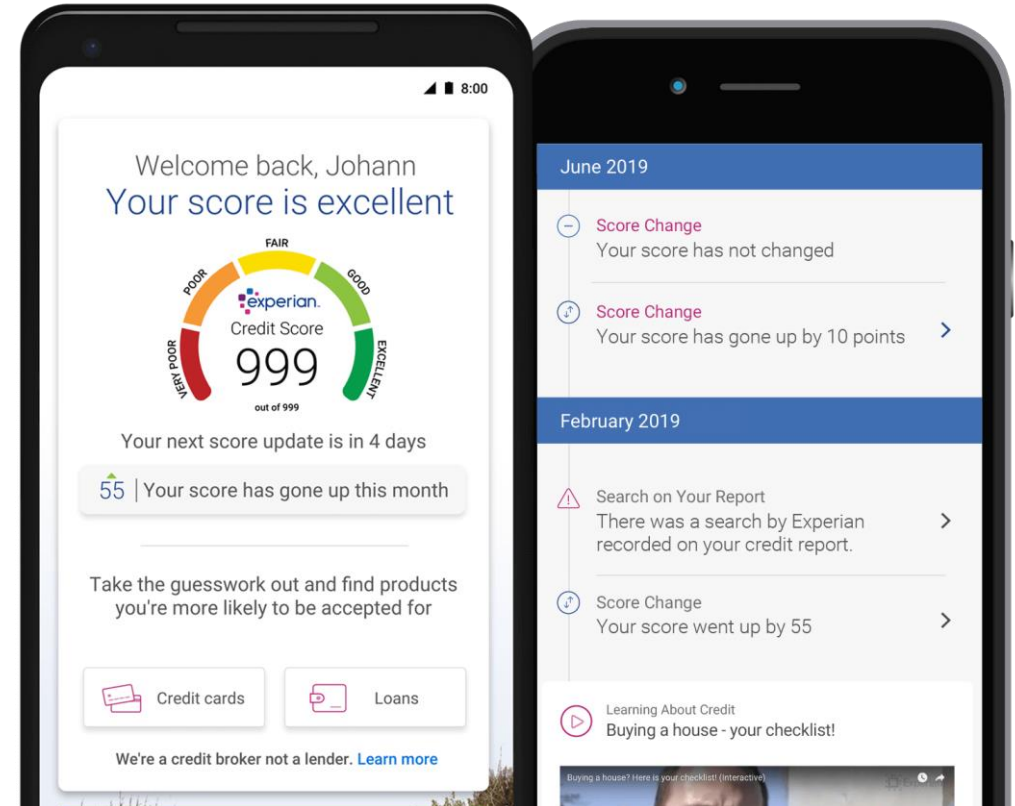

Credit Monitoring and ID Theft Protection Services

Consider services like Experian, CreditWise from Capital One, or LifeLock/Identity Guard

- Authorizations and alerts
- Features include:
 - Liability protection
 - Credit Scores and reports
 - Dark Web monitoring
- Frequently offered free by employers

Know Monitor Protection Strategies: Defend

Passwords

Three keys for great “password etiquette”:

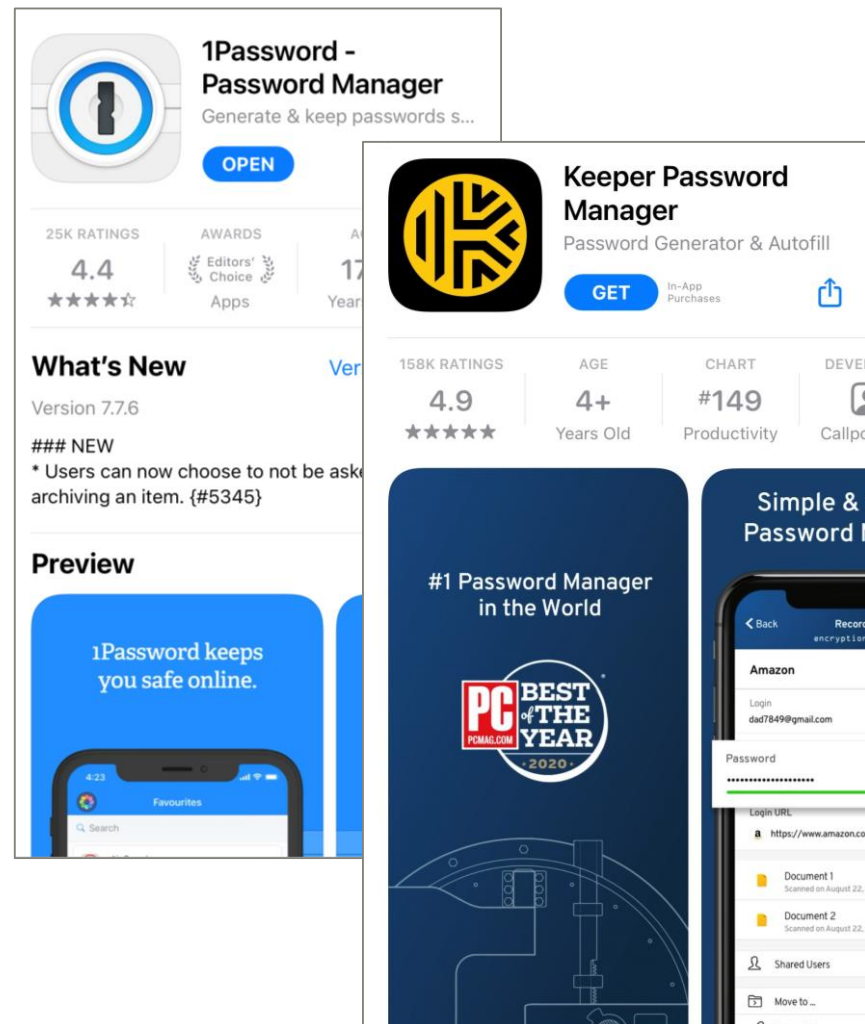

1. Secrecy: never shared, never exposed
2. Complexity: characters, symbols, phrases
3. Variety: always different, changed often

Example:

Jelly22fi$h-10

Use caution if saving passwords to your browser or to your mobile device!

Consider a Password Manager for security and ease.

Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA)

Always review Account and Security settings and utilize options for MFA or 2FA.

Make Multi-Factor Authentication a priority for:

- All Banking and Finance Accounts
- Social Media Accounts
- Google and Apple ID Accounts
- Wireless Provider Account

MFA blocks 99.9% of automated attacks. - Microsoft

Source: Cimpanu, C., Microsoft: Using multi-factor authentication blocks 99.9% of account hacks, ZDNet, accessed May 3, 2023 via: <https://www.zdnet.com/article/microsoft-using-multi-factor-authentication-blocks-99-9-of-account-hacks/>

Freezing Credit

Placing a freeze on your credit is one of the best actions to prevent fraud.

- Who can place one: Anyone
- What it does: Restricts access to your credit report and prevents new lines of credit from being opened
- Duration: Lasts until you remove it
- Cost: Free
- How to place: Contact each of the three credit bureaus, allow 24-48 hours

Be sure to save your PIN!

Government Accounts

The SSA and IRS offer online access to review and protect your accounts.

- Create accounts at SSA and IRS.
- Verify all existing information.
- Explore opportunities to set alerts/notifications.
- Secure accounts with strong passwords.

Take Action: Know, Monitor, Defend

Know: Use your resources to find out what is already online.

Monitor: Develop a system to regularly review accounts and data.

Defend: Take action to safeguard accounts. Implement strong passwords. Hire help.

- Six Accounts for Safety:
1. Credit Monitoring / ID Theft Protection
 2. IRS
 3. SSA
 4. Experian
 5. Equifax
 6. Transunion

Thank you!
